

Food and Beverage Atlantic Presents

MASTERCLASS

SALES & MARKETING

The Food & Beverage Sales & Marketing MasterClass is designed for professionals with marketing and sales responsibilities. The course delves into all aspects of marketing and sales for food and beverage products. A comprehensive case study is employed to allow participants to collaborate, learn by discussing and solving problems together. Over the 6-week interactive course, participants will get to know their peers and build strong relationships that can be leveraged in their careers. Templates and tools and calendars are provided to help each participant apply the learning in their own company. The sections covered include core analysis and adjacency mapping for growth, category and competitor analysis, customer segmentation, value proposition development, packaging and pricing best practices, trade and consumer marketing tactics, and how to hire and manage food brokers and distributors.
